

FDPR NEW CLIENT ANNOUNCEMENT: LOOK WHO'S KNOCKING ON OUR DOOR!

FDPR Welcomes Master Registered Financial Consultant Ira Starr

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: TORONTO, ON—Integrated Public Relations and Media firm, Front Door PR (FDPR) is excited to welcome Master Registered Financial Consultant, Ira Starr to their roster of elite clientele. FDPR will handle Starr's strategic messaging, media, marketing and public relations efforts.

For over 30 years, Ira Starr has been providing non-traditional holistic-based financial guidance to individuals, families, estate administrators, and small business entrepreneurs through his Myth Free Financial educational platform.

In 2019, Ira released his first book, The Book That Everyone Should Have, a straightforward interactive guide and journal designed to help people consider all elements of their financial world, fostering fulfillment and peace of mind.

Ira is a certified member of the National Ethics Association and designated a Master Registered Financial Consultant (MRFC®) accredited by the NCCA and granted through the International Association of Registered Financial Consultants.

FDPR has built a strong reputation in the industry through selective representation and credibility in the media world. As experienced producers and storytellers who have been on the other side of the press release, FDPR works with brands to tell their stories and share their brand promise compellingly and effectively..

“Coming together is a beginning, keeping together is progress, working together is success.”
