

Why Limit Date Night To One Night? OFFA's 2nd Annual International Women's Day Screening Series Offers Outstanding Films All Month Long!

February 2022 - Oakville, ON - The Oakville Festivals of Film and Art (OFFA) is proud to announce the launch of their 2nd annual International Women's Day Screening Series. Organizers have carefully curated an impressive line-up of exceptional films. Helmed by four talented female directors, from Canada, Malta, the USA, and the UK, these films highlight the official themes for #IWD 2022: #BreaktheBias, and gender equality. In partnership with United Way Halton/Hamilton - Women United, OFFA selected movies whose themes advocated for the mental health and well-being, education, and financial stability of every person in every community. The event is sponsored by Capstick McCollum & Associates.

The film series will be presenting four divergent stories that span 100 years of women's struggles and achievements, offering intimate, personal reflections on important social issues in our communities. Highlights include the challenges faced by new immigrants, particularly young women and their families adapting to life in Canada; issues faced by BIPOC communities confronting racism (Alice and Quickening), as well as ageism, sexism, class structure, and gender equality (Mothering Sunday and Carmen). Following the screenings, viewers will be treated to live or pre-recorded, virtual, Q&A's with the Directors, and others from the films.

Following the lengthy pandemic restrictions that proved challenging for most community-based events, OFFA is proud of the continued support that event sponsor, Capstick McCollum and Associates, as well as reception sponsor Cowbell Brewing Co., are providing, giving immeasurable reinforcement for local film and arts celebrations. Cowbell Brewing Co. is offering 10% of IWD Craft Beer Packages to Women United. See special packages here.
